

Roubaix (France)– May 31st, 2016 Nahimic launches the second generation of Nahimic software

Nahimic is thrilled to announce the launch of Nahimic 2, and it's free for all Nahimic users!

Tuyen Pham, CEO of Nahimic: “Nahimic and MSI have co-worked this year to offer gamers not only the best audio, but a new gaming experience. We really have reached new heights together”

Nahimic boosts your PC's audio with the most advanced sound enhancement effects and unique features for gamers. Gamers may now access the best level of sound quality in a simple click, and considerably augment their gaming skills and performances.

Nahimic also virtualizes a 7.1 sound, providing a 360° sound experience. Players are now experimenting their game in a more immersive way. And with this new sound quality, they become part of the game like never before.

The second generation of Nahimic software is now available with even more innovative features for gamers:

Nahimic Soundtracker, which provides a visual indication helping players localize the sounds and navigate an unfamiliar environment;

Nahimic Audio Launchpad, a new tool for streamers to live trigger sounds and share their personalized sound style.

Expert Settings, give advanced users multiple options to fine-tune all settings by keeping a user-friendly and intuitive interface.

Early users have already shared their enthusiasm on this new version:

“People actually yell at me to turn down my laptop speakers. Good stuff, folks. Good stuff.”

“Equalizer, Sound Tracker, etc. Thanks !!!”

“Wow, good job on the Nahimic 2 Team! “

Nahimic 2 will first be bundled on MSI GS32 6Q Shadow Notebook.

Nahimic 2 will be available on MSI gaming machines: www.msi.com
